I. Approval of Minutes

1. Minutes were read and approved.

II. Financial Report

1. Vice President, Marius Mutayoba reported that there was $61.33 spent. Plants for Morgan Marotz and Jason Winter because of death in each of their family were a total cost of $60.00. Fun-tack was purchased to hang up posters, the cost of that was $1.33.

III. Roll Call of Special Officers

1. Community Service Projects coordinator, Jason Winter, reported that he has been working on the community service projects. He is collecting more information about the collection of office supplies for the Somalian and Sudanese immigrants offices that have just opened. Ashley Gregg said that she had talked to an employee at the Liberty Center and that she would give the information to Jason for him to follow up on the Christmas tree project. Jason said that he would check on both of these projects.
2. Election Coordinator, Marius Mutayoba, reported that there was nothing new to report at this time.
3. Historian, Morgan Marotz, reported that she has been working on the scrapbook
4. Office Manager, Chet McGowen, reported that there was nothing new at this time.

5. Public Relations Coordinator, Ben Conover, said he had received all of the information sheets and will be turning them in to get our webpage updated.
6. Special Events Coordinator assistant, Sheri Loecker, reported that Homecoming is on Wednesday November 6, 2002 at the Cox Activity Center. She also informed the Senate of whom the candidates were. The 2002 Homecoming Candidates are: Nicole Harnisch, Marcy Reis, Jessica Schumacher, Amanda Sunderman, Shantell Tramp, Jeremy Gamez, Tyler Laffey, Marius Mutayoba, Eric Newman, and Jason Winter.

IV. Committee Reports

1. There was no report given from the Safety Sub-committee, because Kim Svatos was not present at the meeting.

V. Old Business

1. Morgan Marotz reported that Connie Sixta is trying to get a hold of Ardyce Gross to find more information out about the time capsule. Morgan did report, however, that the college is still planning on digging up the existing time capsule and burying a new one next September.
2. Ashley Gregg reported that she had not found any further information out about the 30th Anniversary of the college, however, she will contact Connie Sixta.
3. Posters promoting Election Day were put up.
4. Homecoming is being held November 6, 2002. Sheri Loecker reported on the event during her special officer's report.
5. Mallory Wriedt won the "Design a Logo" competition. Mallory won a basket full of Halloween goodies. We currently have four ideas for the logo, Senate members are encouraged to design a logo and bring it to next weeks meeting. Senate will vote on which logo will be used.
6. Marius Mutayoba asked if there was any Senate member interested in attending the Multicultural Conference in Lincoln on Saturday November 16, 2002. There were approximately four people interested in attending the conference.
7. Nicole Harnisch, Marius Mutayoba, Marcy Reis, Tammy Day, and Rick Goben all reported on the conference they attended in St. Louis, Missouri October 24-27, 2002. They each gave a short report on some of the sessions that they attended and notified the Senate that there would be a binder made up with all of the information they received, so the Senate could read and gain knowledge also.

VI. New Business

1. Senate will be helping with the Blood Drive on December 4, 2002. A sign-up sheet was passed around.
2. For all of the out of meeting activities, the Senate should fill out a Student Activity Planning Form.

VII. Other

1. The first "Invade the Nest" competition will be held on November 6, 2002, Senate members are encouraged to attend that night's game.
2. Senate will be participating in the Festival of the Trees held November 22-24, 2002. Set-up is on Thursday November 21, 2002 from 6:00-9:00 p.m. Take down is on Sunday November 24, 2002 from 4:00-6:00 p.m.
3. Senate did sign up for a time to work in the concession stand. Senate will be responsible for working on Thursday February 6, 2002 from 6:00-9:00 p.m. We will have a sign up sheet go around when the date gets closer.
4. Luke Dunning and John Rohrs, both students brought a concern to the Senate. They expressed their concern with the overnight guest policy. They presented their view on what they believed should be done about the policy. Along with their presentation they had a petition that one hundred seven residents have signed. The Senate informed Luke and John that we would take their information and also do some of our own research and propose a change. The Senate will be in contact with them about any results of the proposal.

Meeting was adjourned at 5:58 p.m.
