President Katrina Johansen called the meeting at order at 5:13 p.m.

I. Approval of minutes

1. The minutes were approved.

II. Financial Report

1. In Vice President Cara Snider's absence, Katrina explained the key points of next year's budget. The budget proposal will be planned out and completed at the next meeting.

III. Role call of special officers

1. Community Service Project Coordinator Joe Ottis will send the pop tabs out by February first. He is still working on an idea for this semester.
2. Election Coordinator Cara Snider was absent.
3. Historian Makayla Marotz announced that she had changed the bulletin board and will be advertising the open positions on it.
4. Office Manager Katrina Johansen reported that she cleaned up the office and took down several of the old, sloppy posters and typed up the information that was on them for future use. She also informed the members that the SGA office won the Best Student Display in the door contest. She also mentioned decorating the office with group pictures of past and present members as a long term decoration project.
5. Katrina announced that Public Relations Coordinator Ashley Wech resigned from the SGA and that the position of Public Relations Coordinator is open to all members.
6. Special Events Coordinator Genevieve Allou reported that the Welcome Back Breakfast was a success. She also mentioned that invitations to the Martin Luther King, Jr. Day program are being made and will be placed in the dorm students' mailboxes.

IV. Committee reports

1. Katrina attended the Administrative Services Standing Committee meeting and reported the smoking survey results. The committee also compared NECC tuition rates to other schools and discussed the proposals of not raising the tuition and changing the meal plan setup.

2. Katrina attended the Board of Governors meeting and announced that the new Chairperson, Vice Chairperson, and Secretary were elected.
3. No one attended the Educational Services Standing Committee meeting. Marshall received the minutes from the meeting, which mentioned some course changes in the Agriculture and Allied Health Division.

V. Unfinished Business

1. Katrina mentioned working the concession stand. The members signed up for work times on January 16 and January 24.
2. Julie will be choosing a Wacky Wednesday in April on which to bury the time capsule.

VI. New Business

1. Katrina announced to the members that Dr. Severson is sponsoring a Mid-Winter Party for the leadership groups on campus and is asking for the best day to host it. The members agreed that the best day, according to their schedules, would be the evening of February 29th.
2. Due to Ashley's resignation, Heather will take charge of the website. She asked the members to report back at the next meeting with all changes that need to be made on the website.

VII. Other

1. Marshall agreed to have the time capsule measurements done by the next meeting.
2. Makayla will have the name changes done by the next meeting.
3. Heather agreed to pick up the box for the Christmas tree.
4. Julie will purchase the picture frames for the award certificates.
5. Genevieve and Joe agreed to check on printer prices throughout Norfolk to find the best deal.

Meeting was adjourned at 6:25 p.m.
