1. The Student Government Association (SGA) meeting convened at 5:10 p.m. on Thursday, September 2, 2004, in the Student Center Conference Room, with President Marshall Rosenblad presiding.
2. The elected freshman representatives were present at the meeting and introduced themselves:
Tami Pribil- Agriculture, Health, and Science department.
Sandra Wright- Humanities, Arts, and Social Science.
Dan Reinhardt- Business, Math and Technology.
Mark Carlson- Applied Technology.
3. Minutes of the August 26, 2004, Student Government Association meeting were acknowledged and approved.
4. Marshall discussed the different positions that hadn't yet been filled and went over the SGA by-laws on duties of special officers. These are positions that have been covered:
Public Relations- Tami Pribil
Community Service Projects Coordinator- Dan Reinhardt
Special Event Coordinator- Mark Carlson
Election Coordinator- Sandra Wright
5. The travel policy was discussed. The SGA feels the students didn't voice their opinion before this travel policy was passed on. Heather will set up a meeting time with Dr. Severson to come and talk to the SGA about this policy.
6. Genevieve and Caroline were able to set up an SGA table at the Club fair and Heather put everything back when the fair ended.
7. A total of 111 votes were turned in for the freshman elections. Tami Pribil will put information concerning the sophomore interviews in the "What's happening."
10. Marshall talked about parking and SGA membership requirements issues. These will be further discussed at the next meeting.
11. Bonnie Coffey's arrival was discussed, and she will be coming at the college on September 21st.

12. Transportation regarding the SGA conference in St. Louis was discussed. It was decided that we will be driving there.
13. The members briefly discussed meeting with the Division Deans to advertise the open sophomore positions and agreed to discuss it further at the next meeting.
14. Genevieve talked about the SGA budget. The SGA members need to come up with ideas on saving money. Genevieve also discussed the Timberlake Retreat on September 25th. The SGA members have the option between leaving on Friday 24th and staying overnight or leaving on Saturday 25th.
15. Heather the historian, informed the freshman representatives that they will be getting SGA shirts and an SGA group picture will be taken. Heather also attended the Student Services Committee where the Northeast admission policy was discussed.
16. With no further business to discuss, the meeting adjourned at 6:20 p.m.
