1. The Student Government Association (SGA) meeting convened at 5:00 p.m. on Thursday, September 23, 2004, in the Student Center Conference Room, with Vice President Genevieve Allou presiding.
2. Minutes of the September 9, 2004, Student Government Association meeting were acknowledged and approved.
3. Sherry Clausen the Bookstore/ Student Activities Specialist, was present at the beginning of the meeting and she was introduced to the SGA.
4. More issues have been brought to the SGA and they will be discussed further at the Timberlake retreat.
5. Dan, Genevieve and Rick will meet on Friday, September 24th at 1 p.m. to buy food for the Timberlake retreat and the SGA will meet at 5:15 p.m. to leave. John and Tami won't be able to attend the retreat.
6. Mark discussed the NECC Spook-tacular and asked for the team to come up with ideas to be discussed at the retreat.
7. The SGA won't be able to do the DebateWatch but will do a similar event. The SGA will be getting representatives from the Democratic Party and the Republican Party to come and debate.
8. Dan suggested that signs be placed around college to collect old cell phones for the American Red Cross. Dan and Mark are in charge of this project.
9. Genevieve asked John, Marcus and Marshall to bring their schedules to the next meeting. She will talk to Rick about the SGA shirts and name tags this Friday.
10. Marshall requested for his position as an office manager to be taken over. John is now the new office manager.
11. Marshall attended the Board of Governor's meeting and gave his report.

12. Rick informed the SGA that after getting their SGA shirts, they would be introduced to the Board of Governors.
13. Due to minor problems that Genevieve and Caroline have encountered, Rick asked for the SGA to consider flying to St. Louis instead of driving. Rick also informed the SGA that Dr. Seversen might be coming to St. Louis.
14. Genevieve asked the SGA to read the NECC strategic plan for 2003-2008 and for 2004-2009 so that they can be discussed at the retreat.
15. Mark attended the Safety Committee meeting today at 3:15 p.m. in the maintenance building and gave a report to the SGA.
16. Marcus is the new representative on the Student Organization Constitution Review Workgroup and they will meet as needed.
17. With no further business to discuss, the meeting adjourned at 6:12 p.m.
